Canadian Library Month

October 1 to 31, 2023.

2023 Theme: Libraries for Life

During the month of October, libraries and library partners across Canada are raising awareness of the valuable role libraries play in Canadians' lives. More than just a place to find books, libraries promote cultural awareness, engage in the community, provide educational programs, support freedom of expression, and so much more!

We are celebrating Canadian Library Month with three new contests for our Port Colborne community. Stop by the library to pick up a form. For full contest details, please contact the library.

Tell us why you love your library

We are asking our community to tell us why you love your library! Pick up a form and submit your response before October 31, 2023 to be entered into a prize draw.

Sign up (your friend) for a library card

Sign up for a library card during the month of October to be entered into a prize draw! Already have a library card? Have a friend sign up for a library card and you will both be entered into the prize draw!

Spooky story contest (all ages)

Submission due: Monday, October 23, 2023.

Age groups: children (five to 11), teens (12 to 17), and adults (18+)

Submit an original spooky story to library@portcolborne.ca for a chance to win a prize. Entries must be between one and three pages in length. One story will be selected from each age group and will be shared on the library's website and social media accounts. Winners to be announced on Halloween! Forms also available at the library.
