New Library of Things Addition

Date and Time: Sunday, May 1 10:00 am

Address: 310 King St.

New Library of Things Addition: Cain's Jawbone

Cain's Jawbone by Edward Powys Mathers is a murder mystery novel first published in 1934. The book consists of 100 single-sided pages arranged in the wrong order. To solve the puzzle, the reader must determine the correct order of the pages, the names of the murderers, and their victims within the story. Only three people have correctly solved the puzzle, two in 1935, and one in 2020! Cain's Jawbone is now available through our Library of Things collection.

Clean Community Days

Date and Time: Saturday, May 14 9:00 am - 1:00 pm

Address: Brennan Paving parking lot, 198 Welland Street

Port Colborne's Community Safety & Enforcement Department are hosting Clean Community Days on May 14 and June 11, where the community can dispose of refuse and debris from their property, for FREE!

PORTicipating in an upcoming clean community day can be done in three steps:

Step 1: Pick up the refuse, garbage, and debris around your property.

Step 2: Load it into a wheelbarrow, trunk, or trailer.

Step 3: Dispose of it at one of the Clean Community Days.

Items allowed include broken furniture, mattresses, water damaged books and magazines, broken toys, broken lawn ornaments, broken plastic pails and containers, cushions and old lawn chairs, even the kitchen sink!

Items not allowed include regular household garbage, yard waste, recycling, and organics, propane tanks, ammunition, leftover paint, paint cans, paint thinners, stains or varnish, household cleaning products, batteries and electronics, pesticides and fertilizers, freon refrigerators and freezers, and textiles.

To learn more about the clean community project, including more details about the upcoming clean community days, visit our website at www.portcolborne.ca/cleancommunityproject.
